HELP RAILROADS IN WAR SERVICE

Co-operation of Shippers and Traveling Public Contributes to Efficiency.

PASSENGER TRAFFIC IS CUT

Thousands of Train Crews and Locomotives Thereby Released for Hauling Freight Needed by the Government.

Chicago.—Reports just compiled for the railroads' war board indicate that the traveling public in general and the shippers in particular are giving the finest kind of co-operation to the railroads in handling the increased traffic that the war has produced. What this co-operation means may be gleaned from these facts:

Since May 1 the railroads, aided by the loyalty and understanding of the public, have been able to reduce their passenger service by approximately 25,000,000 miles. This has released thousands of train crews and locomotives for use in the freight service and cleared thousands of miles of track, thereby facilitating the movement of coal, food products and supplies needed by the government.

In addition to the foregoing saving of equipment and track, the shippers, big and small, have rallied so splendidly to the slogan, "Make one car do the work of two" that a saving of close to a million freight cars has been accomplished. This saving of freight cars has enabled the railroads to move approximately 25 per cent more freight since May 1 than was declared then during the same period last year.

Intensive Loading Helps. Intensive loading and a general increase in the size of the "trucks" used by the various industries has rendered possible the saving of car space. Cotton, for instance, which was formerly moved in units of fifty bales, now moves only in units of 65 and 75. As there are 18,000,000 bales to be moved by rail each season, the increase in the trade unit in this one commodity alone has produced a saving of anywhere from $3,000 to $2,000 a car.

Sugar, on which the carload minimum from the South was formerly only 24,000 pounds per car, now moves only in a 60,000-pound carload minimum. The producers of manufactured food products, especially the canners, have also come to a realization of the value of intensive loading and are now loading virtually all of their cars to capacity.

Cent, which has been loaded beyond capacity on most lines since the beginning of the war, is also moving freely now, although labor troubles in some parts of the country is tending to counteract the efforts of the railroads to meet the abnormal demand for fuel.

During the past year the supply of cars on the "take out" lines has been increased 25 per cent and there has been some increase in the movement of locomotives out to the lake ports, but it has not been proportionate to the increased supply of cars, as labor trouble has tended to decrease the rail production.

Renewed Efforts Necessary. Although excellent results have been achieved to date through the co-operation of the shippers, the traveling public and the railroads, it will be necessary for all concerned to exert renewed efforts, as the abnormal demands upon the railroads in the movement of both troops and supplies are constantly increasing, while the securing of new equipment is virtually impossible. From now on 5,000 cars a day will be required by the government to move food and supplies to the men in training at the National Army, National Guard and other encampments, while the demand of the allies for cars to carry export goods to the seaports will be practically doubled.

All of this additional traffic must be moved by the railroads, although they have only 3 per cent more equipment than they had at this time last year.

GERMANS THOUGHT LONDON WIPED OUT

Sharon, Pa.—That the German soldiers are victims of the grossest sort of duplicity is the statement of Philip Fisher, a member of the American Red Cross ambulance corps in France. In a letter to friends here Fisher says that he has been present when German prisoners have been questioned. "They did not believe that the United States had any men in France," he says, "and they also thought that London had been obliterated by the Zeppelins."

WISE FARMERS WILL CLEAN COTTON FIELDS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Next year's boll weevils can be fought very effectively today. The bureau of entomology of the United States department of agriculture urges that all weeds and rubbish be cleaned out of cotton fields throughout the south at this time. All stalks still standing in the fields should be destroyed by the time of frost or as soon thereafter as possible. This cleaning up will decrease the possible destruction of boll weevils next year. The species is greatly reduced in numbers this year, but although the boll weevil's strength is weakened at the present he will try to regain some ground next year. To destroy weeds, rubbish, and stalks now is to destroy to a large extent his prospective army for that drive next season.

WANTED.—To buy all grades 4x18 pine shingles. Highest cash prices paid. Advise what you can ship in the next 30 days, and I will make you price on same. JAMES M. CAKE, Fayetteville, N. C. (110v17)

NATION'S CAPITAL IS NOW PROHIBITION CITY

ADVENT OF PROHIBITION AT 12 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT WAS AN INTERESTING EVENT.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—After 100 years of experience with public houses and saloons, Washington, the capital of the nation, on Wednesday night will close its saloons for all time.

In the transition from a wet to a dry city, the capital is busily preparing for a noisy, boisterous farrow to King Bacchus. The District of Columbia authorities have arranged for a detail of 100 extra police to preserve order on the streets Wednesday night. Notwithstanding these precautions, from mouth to mouth has gone the advice that the citizens who venture down town should come in football suits and wearing cleated shoes.

A few of the more popular saloons have decided to close down Wednesday noon.

A majority of the leading clubs of the city are arranging programs at which the drinks that hereafter are to be outlawed are put forward as the headline features.

Part of the arrangements for a noisy and what seems certain to be a more or less riotous leave-taking of booze is due to the fact that the people of the District of Columbia, unlike the people of Ohio, who vote on the question of prohibition six days after the national capital goes dry, had no voice in the passing of the liquor traffic. Washington goes dry, and the saloons are to pass into a thing of memories by act of congress and without any reference of the people.

It is estimated by the internal revenue bureau that $15,000,000 a year is approximately the drink bill of the District of Columbia figured on the average of the last five years. The great bulk of this money, officials now assert, will now go into the saving banks and for the purchase of commodities vastly more useful than booze. With the elimination of the open saloon, officials say, but a very small fraction will continue to find its way into the channels of the liquor trade.

With the closing of the saloons will pass a number of the most historic drinking places in the country. Relics of the days of fifty years or more ago are now being auctioned off. Some of these relics are of real historic value, having intimate association with the statesmen of half a century ago in the days when drinking at public bars was the custom among the Washington leaders of national public opinion.

Bars known and referred to by travelers in London and Paris, pass on into history. Here were places reputed to serve the finest of all mint juleps and an amazing cocktail, the recipe for which always was kept a strict secret. The shutters go up on these places which for long years extended hospitality to many of the great men of the nation.

Closed also will go the doors of Shoemaker's, a landmark in the retail liquor trade of the country, the place where now, it is conceded, was invented the famous pink rickey. Another to pass out of existence is Mades Hotel, under the shadow of the capital a grand rendezvous for statesmen in the days of the civil war, and a place where the leading figures in the Civil War drama congregated to indulge in their customary tipple. Here, too, at a dinner one night, there died John Sutter, the man who discovered gold in California, an event memorialized by a tablet hanging over the bar for all these years.

Up until 1893, save for a $100 license fee, there was no restraint of any kind on the dispensing of liquor in Washington. There was no limit on the number of saloons, and they operated on the free-and-easy basis, staying open all night and Sundays as well of the proprietor. In 1893 came the first move toward regulation. The license fee was jumped from $100 to $1,000, and closing hours, including Sundays, were prescribed. Then came the existing excise law, the act of 1913, with the license jumped to $1,500, the number of saloons limited to 300, and strict regulation. That was four years ago. In that period, the sentiment of the country, as represented by congress, has progressed to the point of thumbs down on the retail liquor traffic. Accordingly, on Thursday morning, the 1st day of November, Washington, for the first time in its history will be without saloons.

TEN MILLION MEN CROSSED SEA SAFELY

PREMIER LLOYD-GEORGE SAYS BUT 3,500 OF NUMBER HAVE BEEN LOST.

London, Oct. 29.—Thirteen million men have crossed and recrossed the seas during the three years of the war—and only 3,500 of these have been lost, Premier Lloyd-George told the house of commons this afternoon in lauding the work of the navy.

"The navy has also safeguarded the transportation of 25,000,000 tons of explosives and 51,000,000 tons of coal," the premier continued.

"The navy is the anchor of the allied cause. It loses its grip, the hopes of the allied cause are shattered." Lloyd-George moved the thanks of parliament to the fighting forces.

A great crowd assembled in the galleries and there was a big attendance on the floor for the prime minister's speech.

Lloyd-George warmly lauded Field Marshal Haig and General Macleod, British commander in chief of the Mesopotamian forces, for their work and paid enthusiastic praise to the dominion forces of the empire.

Unquestionably, it now appears, the District of Columbia will come under the provisions of the bone dry law soon after the coming session of congress convenes. A bill already is prepared placing the District of Columbia in exactly the same category with all other dry territory affected by the bone dry act.

WOMAN STEALS ANOTHER BABY

Mother, Frantic Over the Loss of Her Own Infant, Resorts to Theft.

FOOLS HER HUSBAND

Man, Home From Extended Business Trip, Believes Child His Own, Until Police Reveal Age Discrepancy.

Boston.—When Mrs. Josephine M. Blaine of Dorchester, Mass., entered the Boston Homeopathic hospital, on the eve of motherhood, she did so with high hopes and ambitions for the little one that was to be brought into being. The baby came and died. When the mother was told, she lay as if stunned and her life was despaired of. But nature was strong and the woman recovered sufficiently to depart for her home a few days ago.

Leaving the hospital, a frail little woman clothed in somber black, Mrs. Blaine did not take a car to her home. Instead, she walked, brooding over an inevitable loss, picturing her greeting when she should meet her husband, who was on a business trip and had not learned of the baby's death, but was on his way home to meet his wife and her little one.

Real Mother Discovers Loss. As she passed a store in the heart of the shopping district she saw three baby carriages unattended. She peered into one of them. A lusty little fellow, sleeping quietly. Without a moment's hesitation she pushed the carriage down the street and took the baby home.

Meanwhile the real mother, after making her purchase, left the store and looked in vain for the baby and carriage. She notified the police and in a short time clues were obtained that focused about the home of Mrs. Blaine. An officer entered the house and inquired of the woman as to the number of persons in the household. Mrs. Blaine named her husband, her

LOANS MADE TO ALLIES

TOTAL $2,851,400,000

$25,000,000 MORE IS ADVANCED TO GREAT BRITAIN, MAKING A TOTAL OF $1,400,000,000.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Another advance of $25,000,000 was made today by the government to Great Britain, bringing the total loaned that country thus far up to $1,400,000,000, and the total to all the allies $2,851,400,000.

These subscriptions bring the total of outstanding certificates of indebtedness, issued as a part of the Liberty Loan financing program, up to $2,029,666,000, the largest amount recorded. The entire sum will have to be retired out of receipts from the second Liberty Bond issue.

Should subscriptions to the Liberty Loan total $5,000,000,000, the total amount of acceptances, Secretary McAdoo has announced, would be $1,000,000,000. The present huge total of outstanding certificates of indebtedness shows that more than half of the $4,000,000,000 already has been spent by the government.

"The three-day total of $395,241,000 subscribed to the offering of certificates, with one exception, is the highest yet recorded. The exception was the $400,000,000 issue offered about six weeks ago."

BULLOCH TIMES

The Statesboro News
PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
D. B. TURNER, Editor and Manager.
SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR.
Entered as second-class matter March 28, 1906, at the postoffice at Statesboro, Ga., under the Act of Congress March 3, 1879.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1917.
WELL HANDLED.

It is a matter of general comment that the handling of the big crowds in Statesboro during the fair last week reflected credit upon the police force and the city administration in general. With a perfect jam of traffic upon the streets and at the fair grounds for four days, it has been noted that not a single accident was recorded. There was ample police force provided by the city authorities, and the police work was done in an efficient manner. The streets and the fair grounds were kept open and traffic was directed in such a way as to avoid confusion. Mayor Rountree had told his police chief what to do with his men, and the chief was on the job from start to finish of the big fair. Without show or pomp of any kind, he kept his finger on the situation, and did it without friction.

SIGNS OF PROSPERITY.
Prosperity continues to ride the highways of Bulloch county—that is, it rides till its tires puncture, and then its goes into the shops for repairs. And that is the literal truth. One has only to go upon the public roads a short distance to see the truth of this statement. On a little ride a few evenings ago his scribe noticed the actual proof of the statement in a large degree. Upon the sides of the roads were to be seen almost regular intervals the wrecks of automobiles, the evidences of prosperity. A big Studebaker had its underpinning out and its nose in the sand at a point above Palaski, the result of reckless driving. Nearer Statesboro a congestion in the road disclosed three or four cars standing together, while one of the number was being pulled out of a ditch with its front part torn off. Another evidence of recklessness and prosperity. The time was when only rich people could ride in automobiles; now everybody is rich, but getting poor. This highway riding is bringing them to it as surely as water runs down stream.

Automobile repairs in Statesboro tell us they are completely submerged with work. Long since it has become impossible to procure new cars as fast as they are wanted, and now the big job is to keep those going which have already been sold. Yes, prosperity is riding the highways—what time it is out of the ditch or a sand bed.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The public statement of Gov. H. M. Dorsey that he hopes to be permitted to sign the bill giving to women in Georgia the right to vote, is but another evidence of the growth of the suffrage sentiment with recent years. Time was not so long ago that one looked with suspicion upon a man who expressed even a tolerance toward the suffrage sentiment. It was little short of a crime that women should presume to demand this great privilege of her brothers, who had done so much to protect and shield her from the stern realities of life. It would take from her all that was modest and innocent, and rob man of the great privilege which he had possessed for all time of ruling the country. All sorts of arguments have been urged, from the writings of St. Paul on down the line to the sacred writings. But suffrage sentiment has grown, and woman suffrage will be nation-wide in a few years. Many of the states now permit women to vote. All the states permit them to pay taxes. Some even permit them to hold public office, and there is a red-headed woman in congress. Georgia has at last consented that they may practice law within the state.

With President Wilson at Washington and Governor Dorsey in Atlanta both advocating woman suffrage, we may as well make our plans to live under it. Those who imagine life would be intolerable with women permitted a voice in the councils of the state, may as well make arrangements to get off the globe at an early date.

SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILDREN.
Chas. Baker, Brownsville, Tex., writes: "For several years I have used Foley's Honey and Tar and found it especially efficient for bad coughs of my children. I recommend it to my friends as a safe remedy for children as it contains no opiates. It is certain to bring quick relief and lasting relief." Stops coughs. Sold by Bulloch Drug Co.

BULLOCH TIMES AND STATESBORO NEWS

BULLOCH COUNTY.

(From the Savannah Press.)

Statesboro and Bulloch county never do things by halves. This has been illustrated again in the manner in which they are holding the Bulloch County Fair at Statesboro this week. The metropolis of the long staple cotton growing section was a little slow in getting ready for the fair this year. It was thought at one time there would be none. Then some enterprising citizens got together and in a few hours the plan had been carried to a success. Everybody who was talked to about the fair wanted it held. And it is now being held and it is a great success. There is a half-mile race track, a large display hall for the products of the farm and the kitchens of the county, and splendid pens for the display of the live stock of one of the best counties in the state. No part of Georgia can make a better showing than Bulloch county when it makes up its mind to do something.

The fair grounds are situated on the outskirts of the little city. They are in good walking distance for those who wish to walk, but it seems this fall nobody is walking in Bulloch. They are all autoing. The streets of Statesboro were jammed with automobiles yesterday. There must have been a thousand in the town. They are owned by men who have been raising—and selling—Sea Island cotton that now brings so much money one hates to try to quote the figures. They came from all directions, and there were all makes. The little Fords snored at the big Cadillacs and the giant Coles and Marmons raced with the Buicks and the Overlands and Reos. If any one had wanted to complete a study in autos it would only have been necessary any day this week to stand on a corner at Statesboro and watch the procession go by.

The fair gives only a faint idea of the wealth of Bulloch county right now. There are some fine hogs and some fine cattle and a lot of other things to indicate the prosperity of the people. Corn club boys and canning club girls are on hand in large numbers. The boys are grooming their prize heifers and bulls and making them look their best so they will probably impress the judges when they pass by to review them. The girls have a lot of preserves and pickles and such things on display. They are most enthusiastic in their work and they have labored with splendid results. Unless Mr. Hoover or some one else comes down to Statesboro and confiscate the supplies now on hand there will be no danger of anyone starving in that Providence-blessed section this winter whether the Germans are active or not.

The interest of the Savannahians at Statesboro yesterday was divided between the fair and its products and the big new packing plant, which has recently been completed, and which is now in operation. The Savannah visitors were interested in this because of the fact that Mr. George C. Dixon, a Savannah man, is manager of the plant. Mr. Dixon has made good at Statesboro. He is running the plant in the most approved fashion. And it is one of the best arranged and inviting plants of its kind in the South. It has large capacity and it is constructed upon expert and correct lines. The formal opening of this big enterprise has not yet taken place. It will occur some day in the near future and Savannahians may get an opportunity to visit the bustling business center of Statesboro again and see this plant in operation at its full capacity. Mayor Pierpont and the other Savannahians present yesterday found much to interest them at the packing plant. They saw a lot of pigs turned into the finest sort of pork in a very few minutes' time.

The races at the fair are a feature. The track is a little heavy, but this is to be expected because of its newness. The trotting and running races both attracted much attention throughout all of yesterday. The Bulloch Fair promises to become an annual affair. If the same people who are running that of 1917 get busy for one for 1918 there is no doubt of the success of the enterprise next year. For this year the success has been more pronounced than anyone dared to hope for. It shows what can be done when South Georgia people make up their minds to do it.

METHODISTS ASK TO BE TRANSFERRED FROM DUBLIN

At the fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist church last Friday evening, a resolution was adopted requesting that Statesboro church be transferred from Dublin to the Savannah district. At the same time a strong testimonial of appreciation of the presiding elder, Rev. N. H. Williams, was adopted, and the request was made that he be assigned to the Savannah district as presiding elder.

Statesboro was formerly connected with the Savannah district, and was transferred only a few years ago. It is contended that this church is more closely associated with the churches of the Savannah district, and for that reason the change back to the Savannah district was asked for.

STEADFAST CONFIDENCE

The Following Statement Should Form Conclusive Proof of Merit To Every Statesboro Reader.

Could stronger proof of merit of any product be desired than the statements of grateful endorser who say their confidence has been undiminished by lapse of time? These are the kind of statements that are appearing in your local papers for Doan's Kidney Pills. They are twice-told and confirmed with new enthusiasm. Can any reader doubt the following? It's from a resident of Savannah.

W. J. Taylor, plumber, 224 Park Ave., W. Savannah, Ga., gave the following statement in April 1911: "For months my back was weak and painful and I often had to put my hands on my back for support, when I stooped. My kidneys didn't act right, either, and broke my rest at night. Finally I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me all the good in the world. I got quick relief and soon every sign of kidney trouble left me."

On April 21, 1916, Mr. Taylor said: "I always recommend Doan's Kidney pills when I have an opportunity. I have had no return of kidney trouble."

M'DANIEL SAYS HE GAINED 25 POUNDS

WELL-KNOWN ATLANTA MAN SAYS HE WAS IN BAD HEALTH 3 YEARS AND ONLY WEIGHED 107 LBS.—NOW WEIGHS 140.

"I don't know what was the matter with me, but I had been going down hill for three years, and was so run-down I was about ready to give up my job and go to the country and do something else.

"I fell off in weight until I only weighed 107 pounds, and it just began to look like I would waste away to nothing. I was sick at my stomach nearly all the time, and didn't hardly have strength enough to do my work. Sometimes my back would ache, and I thought I had kidney trouble, and I was always taking kidney pills and other remedies, but they didn't do me any more good than pouring water on a duck's back.

"Well, one day Mr. Mauldin told me to take Tanlac, and I got a bottle and started on it. I hadn't taken more than half of a bottle until I began picking up. I began to eat and sleep and felt like working again. "I have now taken three bottles and it is the honest truth when I tell you I weigh 140 pounds. Yes, sir, that's a fact, and everybody who knows me will tell you the same thing. Tanlac is what did it, too, and it has done me more good than everything else I ever took put together."

This remarkable statement was made by E. H. McDaniel, who lives at 106 South Boulevard, Atlanta. Mr. McDaniel has had a responsible position with the Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills for the past five years, and is well and favorably known by hundreds of people in that section of the city.

AMERICAN BOYS ARE TAKEN BY GERMANS

UNDER BARRAGE FIRE TEUTON RAIDING PARTY STORM SECTION HELD BY AMERICANS.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Armed forces under the American flag had their first clash with German soldiers in an attack which the Germans made on first line trenches where the United States troops had been taken for instructions and three Americans were killed, five were wounded and twelve captured or missing.

The war department made this fact known tonight on receipt of a dispatch from General Pershing showing that the German forces soon after learning the position of the new enemy from overseas had launched a desperate effort to overcome them. The Teuton attack came in the form of a heavy barrage fire which isolated a salient of the American trench and apparently left a small force of the Americans at the mercy of their enemies. That the American soldiers fought gamely is shown by Pershing's report of a prisoner being taken by them. How some of his troops escaped, bringing the German back with them is not told in the brief dispatch of the American commander.

The United States troops were taken in charge of veteran French soldiers to a region near the Rhine-Marne canal, a quiet portion of the long line that runs from the North Sea to Switzerland and for a few days conditions were normal. Cable dispatches for the past 24 hours have been telling of artillery activity some of which was the "normal," but still nothing like the furious fire on other portions of the front. On yesterday a rather cryptic Berlin official announcement told of "North American prisoners" being brought in and this is taken here to refer to the soldiers whom General Pershing's dispatch says are captured or missing.

Many French and British military writers have warned Americans that Germans would hurl terrific blows at the Americans as soon as news of their location reached the German side, and when the Americans went into the trenches, war department officials here predicted this might happen. It was pointed out that this was a favorite trick of the Germans when British territorials from Canada or Australia went into the trenches for the first time.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Advancing under protection of a heavy barrage, a German raiding party stormed a trench held by American infantry, killing three, wounding five and capturing twelve, according to dispatches from General Pershing received by the war department tonight. With (Continued on page 2.)

WATERFRONTS FIRES MAY CAUSE BARRING OF ZONE

GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS PLACING ALL ALIEN ENEMIES 100 MILES FROM SEABOARD.

New York, Nov. 6.—As the result of the many fires along the Brooklyn waterfront and also in other coastal cities, an order declaring all territory within a hundred miles of the coast line of the U. S. A. barred zone is expected by local federal officers to be issued within a few days.

Such an order would force Germans out of Atlantic coast states and would affect thousands of Germans who have lived in big German centers like New York for years, but who failed to forewarn the fatherland.

It is estimated that more than 600,000 enemy aliens would be affected. At a conference here yesterday at which the attorney general was represented local federal officials emphasized the necessity to safeguard the waterfront of New York and vicinity. The gravity of the situation, it was said, led the officials to decide upon a broad course of action, which is expected to result in the barring of alien Germans from all coast cities.

NO PRESENT RESTRICTION ON ACTIVITY OF ENEMY

Washington, Nov. 6.—Attorney General Gregory declared today that no orders had been given to remove enemy aliens a hundred miles from the coast line, where they could not

The preliminary parliament has been dissolved.

Premier Kerensky has been deposed.

CITY GARBAGE CAN USED FOR STILL

CITY OF STATESBORO WAS AN INNOCENT PARTNER IN ALLEN SHEWMAN'S TRICK.

The extent to which the city of Statesboro was a party to the liquor business, was brought to light unexpectedly Sunday morning by Sheriff DeLoach and a party from his office, who raided the den occupied by the wildest still of Allen Shewmans in the western part of the city. The sheriff's posse discovered that the still used was a garbage can belonging to the city of Statesboro, and which had been missing from its proper place on West Main street for several months.

The can, which has a capacity of about 20 gallons, had been hidden in still in the low lands near the farm of Hon. J. W. Williams, and was uncovered along with other evidences of a wild business. Not only did the officers find the still, but there were many bottles of rye liquor of higher grade, as well as the wrappers from other liquors which had evidently been disposed of. The still had been burned out, and a new lead can had been installed in its place, and was ready for operation at the time of its discovery.

The imported liquor had been put under the ground in an old field and was uncovered by the careful scrutiny of the officers. Shewmans was arrested, and admitted that part of the liquor was his, but pleaded ignorance as to further details. He is in jail awaiting trial in a higher court.

BURGLAR CHOKES BABY GIRL TO DEATH

Mother, Believing Child Asleep, is in Ignorance of Death for Hours.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—Lucy Henderson Plummer, four months old infant daughter of Mr. J. K. Plummer, assistant state chemist, was found choked to death in her bed shortly before 9 o'clock today, the crime having been committed by a burglar who was heard in the Plummer home early this morning.

The theory of the police is that the baby cried out while the intruder was in her room, and fearing that it may arouse the household, seized the child by the throat and nose and choked it to death.

About 2 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Plummer heard rattling of the dishes in the dining room and she telephoned the police department. The policemen discovered that a burglar had entered the house by the back door and in escaping left articles in the yard taken from the house. The infant was usually fretful last night and did not get to sleep until 1 o'clock, and when Mrs. Plummer retired after the visit of the policeman she did not disturb the child, thinking it was asleep.

GANG OF CROOKS WORK ON CROWD

CIRCUS DAY BRINGS BIG BUNCH OF PEOPLE WITH MONEY, AND CROOKS FARED WELL.

Tuesday was circus day in Statesboro. It also was a harvest day for the crooks who followed the circus. Just how much of harvest was reaped has not yet come to light, but reports indicate that not less than half dozen pockets were touched, and the purse so far heard from netted from two to three hundred dollars.

Mr. J. A. McDougald was the biggest loser so far, his purse containing about $100, besides a number of railroad passes and other valuable papers. Report has been made that one negro lost about $70, and several smaller amounts were reported. One arrest was made and the accused is now in jail awaiting preliminary.

The light-fingered gentry worked in the thick of the crowd near the ticket office, and are believed to be negroes.

The man arrested, Arthur Crews, was taken in upon the complaint of Alex Tennyson, a white farmer living on the plantation of J. C. Edelman, west of Statesboro. Tennyson lost his purse with $11 or more in it, and his daughter, a child of about 8 years, avers that she saw the negro take it from her father's pocket.

She called her father's attention at the time, but the crowd was so dense that the negro had worked himself out of reach before Tennyson could get his hands upon him. He had the negro watched while he went for a policeman, and those who were on the watch say that Crews met another negro and handed him a roll of bills during the interim. When he was arrested he had only about $9 on his person.

The robberies were all reported in the afternoon. At night the sheriff's office and the police force had special men on the lookout, but nothing was reported to them. Crews denies any knowledge of the theft. He says his home is at Millen.

Y. M. C. A. TO RAISE BIG WORKING FUND

PLANS UNDER WAY TO RAISE THIRTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS FOR SOLDIERS' GOOD.

Coincident with the announcement that the Y. M. C. A. is to launch a drive to raise $35,000,000 for its war work during the week of November 11 to 19, an appeal in behalf of the cause from General John J. Pershing was made public at headquarters of the southeastern department at Atlanta, Ga.

This was in the form of a cablegram to John R. Mott, international general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. from France. It was given out in Atlanta by C. K. Calhoun, campaign manager for the seven southeastern states.

General Pershing says: "The work now being done by the Y. M. C. A. for the comfort and entertainment of our soldiers in France is very important. Its moral influence is highly beneficial. It performs a real service that makes for contentment. The Y. M. C. A. has won its place by itself, and its personal devotion to the soldiers' welfare and deserves staunch support by our people at home."

The quota of the southeastern department in this campaign has been fixed at $1,500,000. It is divided among the several states as follows: Alabama, $200,000; Florida, $75,000; Georgia, $350,000; Mississippi, $100,000; North Carolina, $300,000; South Carolina, $200,000; Tennessee, $300,000.

Each state has its campaign manager and directing committee and the state has been further sub-divided into districts with county and city committees.

An executive committee for the southeastern department consisting of three representatives from each of the states has been formed. This comprises the following men:

Florida—Dr. L. A. Bize, Tampa; C. P. Dow, Orlando; Fred B. Noble, Jacksonville.
Georgia—J. K. Orr, Atlanta; C. A.

The brick block in the rear of the Brooks Simmons Company's grocery department, known as the Brannen warehouse, with all its contents, was destroyed by fire at about noon yesterday, entailing a loss of from $12,000 to $15,000.

The building was the property of Messrs. M. G. and B. C. Brannen, and the front part of it was occupied by them as a warehouse. The rear of the building facing on Vine street, was occupied by negroes for a multiplicity of uses, including a restaurant, moving picture show, pressing club, tailor shop, etc. The entire contents of the building went up in smoke.

Included in the Brannen property were twenty-four barrels of cotton belonging to them. Of these, seven sales were seen Island and eighteen upland, altogether valued at approximately $5,000. Besides this, there was stored a
